

TOP FIVE FRIDAY

SUMMER CAMP STORIES

1

Proof of Forever by Lexa Hillyer

YA HILLYER LEXA, ebook

Joy, Tali, Luce, and Zoe thought that they would be friends forever. Now, two years later, they've all grown apart—until the four of them are transported back in time to the summer where everything changed.

2

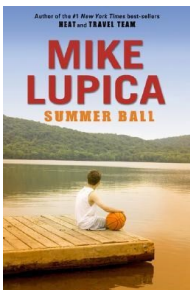

Lumberjanes by Noelle Stevenson

YA 741.5973 LUMBERJANES, ebook

Things aren't what they seem at Lumberjanes scout camp, but best friends Jo, April, Mal, Molly, and Ripley are determined to have an awesome summer together, no matter how many magical quests or supernatural creatures they run into.

3

Summer Ball by Mike Lupica

YA LUPICA, ebook

Danny is the smallest kid on his basketball team, but that doesn't stop him from being one of the best. Now he's heading to basketball camp for the summer, where he needs to prove himself and where he might be out of his league.

4

Spy Camp by Stuart Gibbs

YA GIBBS STUART, ebook

Ben has spent the past year training to be a spy and he can't wait to spend the summer relaxing. But that was before he found out he has to spend his summer at spy camp and before he started receiving death threats from the enemy spy organization SPYDER.

5

The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan

YA RIORDAN RICK, CDB, playaway, ebook, eAudiobook

After Percy's teacher turns into a monster and tries to kill him, Percy's mom ships him off to Camp Half Blood. Camp Half Blood is a summer camp for demigods, where Percy learns that his father is a god and that a war between the gods is brewing.